

Southern California Growers/PCAs/PCOs

The recent ACP finds in commercial citrus & the increasing populations in urban citrus have initiated this program especially for you.

Special Edition

Seminar & Discussion on Asian Citrus Psyllid

Presented by:

Citrus Research Board (CRB) and University of California Cooperative Extension (UCCE)

Friday, September 2, 2011

Same program, two locations:

Ayres Hotel - Redlands 1015 West Colton Ave. Redlands, CA 93274 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.	Pala Casino 11154 Hwy. 76 Pala, CA 92059 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.
---	---

Topics & Speakers:

Status Update on ACP Populations in Southern California

Brian Taylor, Operations Director, Citrus Research Board

Treatment Strategies

Dr. Beth Grafton-Cardwell, UC Riverside Entomologist & Director of Lindcove (LREC)

Uptake & Efficacy of Imidacloprid

Dr. Joe Morse, Professor of Entomology, UC Riverside

Strategies for Immediate Deployment to Protect Against Current ACP Populations

Dr. Beth Grafton-Cardwell, UC Riverside Entomologist & Director of Lindcove (LREC)

with

Ted Batkin, President, Citrus Research Board

Dr. MaryLou Polek, Vice President, Science & Technology, Citrus Research Board

Approved for 2.0 hours of continuing education credit

There is no charge for this program however, an rsvp would be greatly appreciated.

Please call Emma at 559-738-0246 or email: info@citrusresearch.org